Step-Son of Omega

Once again, we are creating a solid migration path for those companies still running Sage Pro, VisionPoint and PFW.

WAC was the country's leading reseller for Sage Pro until it was retired by Sage. We still continue to support the system, although over time more organizations are looking to move to more efficient systems.

We have been very successful helping organizations move forward from Sage Pro for a number of years. We bridge the gap between what you do in Sage Pro and how those processes will look in your new application. We can migrate the data you need and make sure we capitalize on the value a new platform provides.

Look for more updates in next month's Newsline.
